The Bombay Gazette

FRIDAY, APRIL 19, 1867.

IF there is one thing which more than any other unfits a high official for the efficient exercise of authority it is his ignorance or disregard of the feelings, opinions, and aspirations of those whom he is appointed to govern. Yet how frequently is it observable that men of the narrowest and most erroneous views are hoisted into positions, the duties of which they are sadly incapable of discharging. Official incompetency in those cases in which the big man, being a sinecurist or an imbecile, has the work of his section of public affairs duly performed by his subordinates, is of trifling practical moment. But where special ability is an indispensable qualification of the chief functionary to enable him to decide in matters affecting life and health, and this is wanting, its absence can only be regarded as very seriously and very generally detrimental. Knowledge, temper, judgment and tact must all be carefully considered before arriving at any trustworthy conclusion respecting the fitness of particular persons for the due execution of important functions. These are the points which, when harmoniously combined, afford ample assurance of success. But let only one of these be deficient or incompliementary with the others, and the result will be unsuccess, more or less remarkable. These are propositions of such patency as to require no illustrations to convince most people as to their abstract truth. These preliminary remarks and those which follow have had their origin in the consideration which we have devoted to the existing condition of the Home and Local Medical Services, that consideration having been gladly yet anxiously afforded, it being our firm belief that the criterion of military efficiency is in exact proportion with that of physical efficiency. We ought by this time to know well enough how vain it is to expect cordial and satisfactory service from justly dissatisfied employes. Hitherto it has been much the fashion amongst a certain class to treat as visionary and groundless the reasonable claims of the Medical Officers of the Army to kindlier treatment than as yet they have received. But this way of regarding these claims is not only ungenerous, it is also manifestly unwise. Positive and prolonged ill treatment is pretty certain to run, sooner or later, the very best servants. It is not by rendering these everlastingly discontented that we can ever hope for their heartiest and most effective assistance. Let those whom you employ be assured of your steady non-appreciation of their merits, and if in the end they do not become apathetic and greatly more expensive than you may at first have thought, you will be singularly and most undeservedly fortunate.

Although it is quite true that the Military Authorities have seldom or never evinced any very friendly feelings in their relations with our Army Surgeons, things might now have been much more pleasant for the latter had their own administrative superiors, and especially their Directors General, been more sympathizing. It is one of the complaints of the more junior ranks, and one which it is not the least painful to hear, that they are rarely, if ever, comforted by the sympathy of their seniors, and that under circumstances in which they have a right to expect the support and protection of their departmental superiors neither are usually afforded. An intense feeling of distrust of the superior officers of the Medical Department is plain enough amongst the non-administrative ranks, including the Surgeons-Major, the Surgeons, and the two classes of Assistant Surgeons. No one who has mixed much with these latter can have failed to remark the almost general prevalence of this unfortunate feeling. On becoming a Deputy Inspector of Hospitals, the Army Surgeon, it is said, ceases to be a medical man in every sense of the term; and the higher he ascends in the administrative list, the more oblivious does he become of the claims of his juniors and of the department generally to adequate redress. If the Inspectorial and Directorial ranks were, as we are told, less selfish in their role, and above all not utterly devoid of esprit de corps, we should hear much less of those petty yet none the less vexatious and damaging acts of oppression against which Regimental Surgeons in particular have virtually little or no protection. It requires no extraordinary effort of vision to perceive that no officers are less respected by their juniors than are those of the administrative ranks of the Military Medical Departments. Knowing as much as we have had ample opportunities of doing of the relations of cause and effect as regards this deplorable absence of concord amongst men of the same profession and department, we refrain from attaching more than their due share of blame to the superior Medical Officers. They have undoubtedly failed to do what they very well might have done to create a better state of feeling and a more hearty co-operation on the part of their subordinates. Of whatever amount of harm to the public service this failure may have been the cause they cannot stand acquitted. To this extent they are guilty beyond all manner of mystification. As for the remainder, that most vicious and hopelessly irrepressible "system" of which they themselves have been abject slaves is accountable,—that very system which our able and accomplished English contemporary the Pall Mall Gazette and other equally high authorities declare to be incompatible with true military progress, that 'system' which arrogates to itself the excessively expensive privilege of originating and aggravating all our most insurmountable military difficulties ad infinitum. Considering how long it has stood execrated and condemned its continued and undiminished vitality can only be attributed to some strangely Conservative idiosyncracy of the English people. We have long ago elaborately explained the nature of the evils affecting both the Home and the Local Medical Services. Until these agencies of more than common only imagined inefficiency have been fearlessly and completely eradicated, we cannot hear too much or too often regarding them. There are other interests than those of our Military Surgeons which imperiously demand their removal. So long as they are suffered to continue unremoved just so long must their effects continue to be experienced to the detriment of the Army itself, the resources of the country, and our national prestige, as well as by a most meritorious but shamefully entreated class of public servants. We cannot, if we would, afford very much longer to requite these servants with the base-metal coinage to which they have been so long accustomed. Their qualifications becoming yearly more difficult of attainment, their market value must go on increasing. What we require for the conservation of military health up to the highest point of perfection are not the ill-educated, badly trained, empirics of the Irish provincial schools, or those others, who, for professional or other reasons, find it impossible to obtain a footing in civil medical life, but highly educated thoroughly able young gentlemen. But to secure these latter and be able to retain their priceless services, we must in the first place so re-model the Medical Department as to render its appointments not unsuitable for acceptance by gentlemen.

How this object is to be effected and the only way in which it is attainable, we described more than a year since. Briefly we repeat what then we discussed at some length, namely, that the one, the all-important, the sole remedy, for the evils to which we refer is the reconstruction of the Medical Department into a corps as exempt from petty and vexatious regimental control, as are the Chaplains', Public Works', Judge Advoccates', Commissariat, Ordnance and Military Store Departments; together with the universal introduction of the general in place of the regimental hospital system. The surpassing advantages of the General Hospital system our space forbids us to enter upon the full statement of at present. This task we, however, undertook to perform in April of last year, in which month we published three articles on this topic, in which we contrasted these advantages with the disadvantages of the regimental medical system. A comparison of the two systems is not possible, because, with the benefits derivable from the General Hospital system, there is not one single good thing in the regimental system to compare. The full force of this seemingly audacious declaration will, we believe, be frankly acknowledged by all who have perused our former articles on this subject.

POLITICAL LETTER.

(From our Own Correspondent.)

LONDON, 26TH MARCH.

I AM afraid you will be almost as sick of Reform as I am. "Compound Householders" who lie so heavy on one's intellectual digestion in England that they are already beginning to excite chronic nausea, cannot be very much less indigestible in Bombay, and as I don't want to sicken you entirely with the subject, I shan't dwell on it at any great length in this letter. When I wrote to you last I was just going down to the House to hear, as it proved, one of the best debates of the session, on the introduction of the Government Reform Bill. And at that time it was believed that the Government Bill would be even less objectionable than it has actually proved. I told you, I think, what turns out to be a mistake, that compound householders would probably be empowered to deduct from the rent they pay to their landlords the rates they would claim the right to pay directly in order to get the franchise. That is not so, and as the bill stands, compound householders could only gain a vote by direct arrangement with their landlord; else they might be required to pay the whole rates again in addition to paying three-quarters of it in the rent. The dual vote for all direct taxpayers who also have a qualification as householders, is, it is said to-day, to be insisted on, and if it is withdrawn Mr. Gathorne Hardy and Mr. Walpole will probably follow Lord Cranborne, Lord Carnarvon, and General Peel. As the Government certainly could not outlive a new secession, I suppose they really do intend to take their stand firmly on this provision, which, with curious infelicity, would operate very powerfully to strengthen the middle class against the working class in the manufacturing boroughs where the working class is most intelligent, most independent, most characteristic, but would do little or nothing in that direction in the small boroughs where the middle class is independent and the operative class dependent, and too often open to corruption. The member for Maldon (one of the most corrupt class of boroughs) said the other day that while the Government measure would create 60 dual voters in the substantial part of his constituency, it would add 500 new voters to the most dependent class. This unfortunate dual vote, which shuts out the intelligent artisans of manufacturing towns from real influence and leaves the dependent operatives of the small boroughs quite untouched in the predominence which household suffrage gives, will certainly destroy the Bill, if nothing else does. But the whole question is now so hampered,—Lord Derby sees that his new Bill meets with so little real approval either on his own side of the House or the other, that my own impression is that the Government may go out any day quite suddenly on some side issue. The only thing against this is that, as I happen to know, Mr. Disraeli is very anxious to dissolve rather than resign, and he manages to influence Lord Derby,—as it is said quite without Lord Derby's knowing it and even when Lord Derby fancies that he is getting his own way against Mr. Disraeli. Why Mr. Disraeli wishes for a dissolution rather than a ministerial resignation it is not so easy to say, though I have no doubt of the fact. It is pretty certain that the Conservative party would lose instead of gaining at the hustings at the next elections, and would in all probability lose seriously. The reason attributed to Mr. Disraeli is a highly finessing one, which no one of course can prove to be the true one. It is said that he thinks the effect of new elections must be to pledge the Liberals deeply to a rather extreme measure like household suffrage, pure and simple, in the boroughs; and that what he looks to as the salvation of the Conservative party is the admission of a very large and ignorant class to the polling booths. I confess this seems to me very finesse-ish of Mr. Disraeli, but it is very curious how carefully he has avoided identifying himself with the "guarantees" against numbers which he is commonly supposed to have himself suggested. In neither the first speech on the resolutions nor in that of yesterday week, did he use a word of argument for the plural, or dual, vote. In the first speech he did not even mention the resolution on plurality; yesterday week he mentioned, almost as if he were touching red-hot iron, and only mentioned, the dual vote, and dropped it again as soon as the explanation of what the Government proposed was out of his mouth. People say that he has proposed these things only as modes of decoying a Conservative Cabinet into pronouncing the words 'household suffrage' and that he never meant or supposed that these "guarantees" could stand, though they might be the means of gradually accustoming the minds of his party to what he wished. He is supposed to have been very much struck by the success with which Louis Napoleon has worked democracy as a Conservative force, and that his object is to effect the same thing for the success of the Conservative party in England which Louis Napoleon has effected in France for the Imperial dynasty, and by the use of the same means. His difficulties however will be greater with his own followers than even with his foes.

The liberal party stand in a very false position just now in regard to the bill. There was a meeting of the Liberal party at Mr. Gladstone's house last Thursday, when it was decided not to oppose this bill on the second reading, but, if it were not materially altered for the better, then to resist the motion "that the speaker do leave the chair to go into Committee on the Bill." This was decided, however, on a day when it was universally believed that the Cabinet had already decided to withdraw the dual vote, and now that it is almost officially declared that they will not do so,—at least not before going into Committee, the Liberals are placed in a very unpleasant situation. Mr. Gladstone has made no secret of wishing to resist the second reading altogether, and the same may be said of almost all the leaders. But then there is a large party of soft Liberals, farrinaceous Liberals, Liberals who live on political sago, as I might call them, who are against back-bone altogether, and entirely object to refusing to consider anything which you could alter and amend; and then, there are besides the Conservative Liberals like Mr. Roebuck and Sir George Bowyer, who are Liberals only in name. There are so many of these that the Liberal party can scarcely act as a party at all, and hence Mr. Gladstone was driven against his will into promising to permit the Bill to be read a second time, though he did not hesitate to call it much the worst bill that had yet been proposed on Reform. On Monday week, before this foolish resolution to temporize had been taken, his speech against the bill was broad, eloquent, massive, unanswerable. But hampered by this decision of his party not to oppose the second reading, he made yesterday, on the occasion of the second reading, a poor, minute, complex, feeble speech, such as encouraged his adversaries and disheartened his supporters. It was not his fault but that of the milk and water Liberals who would not allow him to do what was obviously right, oppose the second reading, but obliged him to calculate his speech so as to be suitable for the line he was compelled to take,—not of unqualified resistance, but detailed criticism. And by way of return for this immoderate moderation, Mr. Gathorne Hardy replied by a stiff refusal on the part of the Government to modify, before the second reading, any one of the features objected to,—even the dual vote. Thus the Liberals, if they persist in not dividing on the second reading, will find themselves committed to this as one of the principles of the Bill.

So much to let you know how this perplexed and wearisome question really now lies. There is no more chance of this bill passing into law, than of Shelley's "Queen Mab" being embodied in an Act of Parliament, and I do not think there is very much more chance of its being altered so as to be acceptable. But all parties are now in an embarrassment with relation to it, and I don't feel at all sure how the matter will go. I fancy the Tories are even more unhappy than the Liberals. The new Tory "cave" numbers more than the Liberal "cave" ever did. Lord Cranborne says, I believe, that there are more than fifty Conservatives with him in the Tory Adullam. Sir W. Heathcote and Mr. T. Baring are really representative men, and they have spoken against the bill. Mr. Beresford Hope and Mr. Sandford (nd Peacock, the member for Meldon,—he changed his name for an estate I believe last year, he used to be known as Mr. Peacock) are not representative men. They are, like Mr. Roebuck and Mr. Bernal Osborne and Mr. Lowe on the Liberal side, what the elephant hunters call "rogues," not cheats or knaves, but solitary and vicious politicians who like making murderous attacks on all alike, whether their own side or the enemy's; and the attacks of the Conservative rogue-elephants are not so damaging, therefore, as the attacks of the Conservative tame-elephants, who usually follow their leaders quietly enough and even assist in maintaining the discipline of the party. Still Mr. Sandford's furious attack on the bill on Monday week was very mischievous to the Government Bill, just as Mr. Roebuck's equally vicious and similar attack on Mr. Gladstone for his "pettyfogging objections" last night, was very mischievous to the unity of the Opposition. I think the way in which these attacks are mischievous is by breaking through the salutary feeling of respect for leaders and for organization, and liberating any hesitating member from the scruple he may feel as to the claims of that party tie. It is curious how much the number of these 'rogue' politicians,—I need not say that I speak in the technical sense only used by elephant hunters, and not in any way with a view of imputing the other ideas attached to the word in England to any of those excellent gentlemen,—has increased in Parliament of late years. Sir James Emerson Tennent says that there is not above one rogue-elephant to every five-hundred of the higher natured and more docile creatures. Well, that used to be about the number in the House of Commons,—one to every full house. But now each party has some half-dozen rogue politicians of its own, men who are always readier for a vicious attack upon it than upon the enemy. Nothing more violent in its way than the attack of Mr. Sandford on Sir John Pakington did I ever see in the House, though Mr. Roebuck's last night—which I did not see—on the "pettyfogging" cavils of his leader must have been something like it. Mr. Sandford and Mr. Roebuck alike are all political gall. There is a politically vicious look in their eyes at the leader whom they are striving to render uncomfortable in his position. They treat a question not as if they had any direct interest in it, but only in the modes in which it can therefore state the course that will be taken by Prussia in the Luxembourg question; he believes that no power will endanger the rights of Germany.

GENERAL SUMMARY.

THE proposal for the amalgamation of the Presidency Banks has not yet been formally placed before the shareholders of the Bank of Bombay by the Directors; but a preliminary discussion on the subject took place at a meeting held this week for the election of a new member of the Board. Several influential shareholders spoke strongly against the policy of amalgamation, though the Directors declared themselves to be unanimous in favour of accepting the offer of the Bank of Bengal; and the suggestion was thrown out that the Board should, before submitting to the shareholders the terms of any arrangement that may be agreed upon for carrying out Mr. Dickson's project, ascertain whether Government would be willing to continue its account with the local Bank, provided sufficient capital were raised in Bombay itself for "reconstructing" the Bank. The difficulty seems to be that no one apparently knows what the shares of the existing Bank of Bombay are really worth. If, as is commonly believed, almost the whole capital of the Bank has been lost, there is no hope for the shareholders but in amalgamation; if, on the contrary, a considerable proportion of the capital is still left, it may be possible to carry on the Bank without the aid of Calcutta. It is hoped that, before the matter is again brought before the shareholders, the Directors will have prepared an estimate of the true value of the shares, so as to show the exact position of the Bank.

The Bench of Justices has unanimously decided against re-opening the controversy as to the proper outfall for the drainage of Bombay, being of opinion that that question was satisfactorily settled, after years of discussion, in favour of the Colaba Point outfall, by a resolution of the local Government last year. This decision will, it is expected, have the effect of limiting the scope of the enquiry now being conducted by the new Committee appointed by Government. The President of that Committee, Colonel Tremenheere, wished to reopen the whole controversy, and made a long speech at the Justices' meeting in defence of his opinions, but found no supporters; and it is believed he will now resign his seat on the Committee and leave the way open for progress.

The official liquidator of the Asiatic Banking Corporation, which suspended payment in the autumn of last year and which is now being wound up through the Court of Chancery, has been in Bombay for a number of months engaged in liquidating the Corporation. The Asiatic Bank was the offspring of the great Back Bay Reclamation Company whose capital was deposited with it, and also the proceeds of the sale of the shares allotted to and refused by Government. No Bank as regards capital and deposits could have started under happier auspieces than the Asiatic Bank, its coffers from the first moment of its existence being plethorically filled with money. The superabundance of its funds can hardly be stated in explanation or palliation of the vicious speculative courses on which it was hurried, for the spirit of speculation was too general throughout the community to allow of an exemption of even the most insignificant Association possessed of cash or credit. When the Bank failed the cash deposits of the Back Bay Company amounted to nearly £900,000, and the cutting off of this large supply also brought about the dissolution of the Reclamation Company. The liquidator of the Bank has submitted to the Reclamation Company a proposal for a compromise, and we are enabled from this and from a discussion which took place at a meeting of the Company held to consider the same, to see what the condition of the Bank at present is. We may here state, parenthetically, that, at the end of 1865, the paid up capital amounted to £618,582, and the reserve fund to £87,500. The current deposits were then £973,800 and the fixed deposits £1,904,300. The Bills payable and sums due to the public amounted to £2,928,762. The Bank at that time held in cash, money at call, and Government Securities, £1,138,000. The amount of Bills receivable and Loans due to the Corporation was £5,513,500. We now learn that the aggregate of liabilities is £1,710,000 including the estimated expenses of liquidation and a few items of contingent liabilities which must be considered as actual in the present state of things. The total amount of the assets on the other hand, is £2,360,000, but the liquidator "after a most careful estimate" does not expect them to produce more than £700,000 or about six annas in the rupee. The liquidator is endeavouring to effect a compromise with the creditors of the Bank in Bombay; and among them the Bank's largest creditor, the Back Bay Company, at the rate of eight annas in the rupee, so that it is obvious a call must be made on the shareholders to enable him to carry out his arrangements. Of the shareholders 85 per cent. are resident in Bombay and are chiefly natives, and the remaining 15 per cent. are resident in Europe. The liquidator estimates (but he admits the impossibility of estimating approximately owing to the state of Bombay) the amount which a call would yield, and he states the figure at from £300,000 to £400,000, out of a total liability by the shareholders of a million and a quarter. The call would necessarily involve a decided reduction on the dividends derivable from various large estates of insolvent shareholders who are also debtors to the Bank to the amount of £1,300,000. We believe the present "available" assets of the Bank will not yield two annas in the rupee or 2s. 6d. per £.

The meeting of the Back Bay Company, referred to in the preceding paragraph, has been adjourned to enable the shareholders to consider the proposal for a compromise by the liquidator of the Asiatic Bank. The Bank, itself a large shareholder, proposes to make over to the Company 1,000 Back Bay Shares and to pay £175 per share to all the remaining shareholders within six months and prior to all the other creditors of the Bank, excepting to such as are willing to accept 8 annas in the rupee, all of whom are to be on an equal footing as regards the time of payment. The Bank Liquidator stipulates that on the shares being handed over to the Company by the Bank, all liability of the Bank or its nominees shall absolutely cease and determine. A number of shareholders fought hard for better terms from the Bank, but the reply of the liquidator was that in making the offer he was testing the powers of the liquidation to their utmost extent. The meeting was almost unanimous as to the desirability of a compromise, which is obviously better than running the risk and incurring the delay of a costly and tedious liquidation. It is evident that, even if the shareholders of the Bank are mulcted to the full extent of their liability, the Bank will only yield a dividend of 10s. in the £ after all.

We have information of the loss of the French vessel Oriental, of Marseilles, bound from Gabon (Coast of Guinea) to Marseilles. The Oriental experienced rough weather between lat. 37° S. and long. 27° E. after having been sixty days out, and being full of water and fast sinking was forsaken by the crew, who were picked up by the Princess Somawutty for Liverpool and conveyed to Mauritius.

COMMERCIAL.

THE P. and O. S. S. Baroda with the English Mails of the 26th March arrived on the 17th inst. The telegrams received, since our report of the 13th instant, have come forward very irregularly at intervals of 4 to 6 days from the date of despatch. The news has been anxiously looked for, for the telegrams received the evening of the 12th instant, and the next 5 days, report a heavy fall in cotton, and a panic in London and Paris, consequent upon the apprehension of a Continental war. But the feeling of alarm raised by those telegrams has, to a great extent, subsided since the receipt of later advices dated the 12th and 15th instant, which report that France is willing to refer the Luxemburg question to the neutral Powers, and from which it is inferred that hostilities will probably be averted. Our latest advices are dated Liverpool 12th instant, quoting Fair Dhollerah dull at 10¾d. per lb., with a total stock of 8,85,000 bales, of which 127,500 were Surats. Private telegrams have, however, it is said, been received to the 15th inst., quoting Dhollerah ¼d. lower, but these require authentication. Our latest advices from Calcutta are dated 13th inst., quoting 7 lbs. 39 in. Shirtings at Rs. 7-2.0 to Rs. 7-4.0, with more doing and Exchange at 2-0 for Bank Bills. Our latest advices from China are dated Hongkong 1st April, quoting Exchange on London at 4-4 for 4 months sight Bank Bills, and Shanghai 26th March, quoting Exchange at 5s. 10d. per tael.

MONEY.—The Bank of Bombay's Return issued 13th instant shows the Deposits at Head Office to amount to Rs. 122½ lacs, and the Cash Balance to 48¼ lacs. The Bank's rates of discount are nominally 7 per cent. for loans on Government Paper and 10 per cent on Mercantile Bills. In the Bazar generally the state of the money market continues the same, no accommodation being obtainable.

GOVERNMENT PAPER.—The market in the beginning of the week showed more activity, the telegrams of the 13th inst. from Calcutta advising a rise there of ¼ to 1 per cent, the quotations being, Fours 87½, Fives 105½, and Fives and half 109¾. The market, however, has been less active since the receipt on the 16th inst of the information that the Government of India had invited tenders for a new Five per cent Loan of £1,500,000. The Calcutta quotations above given being those of the 13th, whilst the notification of the new Loan having been made on the 12th, shows that the prices in Calcutta had not been affected by it. The rates here are Fours 86¾, Fives 104½ and Fives and Half 108¾ to 108¾. The tenders for the new Loan will be received in Calcutta up to 20th May, and it is proposed that of the £1,500,000, £4,00,000 shall be repayable after five years, £5,00,000 after 10 years, and £6,00,000 after 15 years.

SHARES.—The market continues in the same depressed state, hardly any description of share being saleable. There is, however, a demand for Royal and Presidency Bank shares at Rs. 66 and Rs. 67 per share respectively. Bank of Bombay shares continue to droop, there being no purchasers for them even at 77 per cent discount. National Bank shares are steady at Rs. 110 per share of Rs. 125 paid up. All land shares are unsaleable; Back Bays are quoted at Rs. 1,850, Elphinstones at Rs. 450, Mazagons at Rs. 510, Frere shares at Rs. 110, and Victorias at Rs. 1,080 per share.

EXCHANGE.—A limited business has been done for the out-going mail, which comprises the last 4 days only. Rates opened with a declining tendency, the chief Banks quoting their drawing rate at 1s. 11¾d. at which, however, few sales have been effected. But yesterday afternoon, owing to the receipt of the telegrams reporting a more peaceful state of affairs on the Continent, a good many Bills were offering, and the market became somewhat firmer, the rate for documents having risen to 2s. 0¼d, To-day being mail day, not much has been done. We quote Bank Bills 1s. 11¾d. to 2s. 0d. Credits 2s. 0¼d. to 2s. 0¼d. Documents 2s. 0¾d. to 2s. 0¾d. The rate for sight Bills on Calcutta is 99¾, and for 60 days sight Bills 98¾. On China the rate for 60 days sight Bills is Rs. 213 per 100 dollars.

IMPORTS.

Grey Goods.—All Shirtings continue dull, and a decline of one anna has taken place since our last report. Of 39 in. 5¾ lb. about 1,000 pieces have been sold at Rs. 4-9. Of 6 lbs. about 6,000 pieces changed hands during the week at Rs. 5-3 to Rs. 5-5. In 6½ lbs. a few sales have taken place at Rs. 5-8. Of 7 lbs. about 17,000 pieces have been sold at Rs. 5-10 to Rs. 5-14. Of 8¼ lbs. about 40,000 pieces have been sold at Rs. 6-11. to Rs. 7-2. In 9 and 9½ lbs. no sales have taken place. EXPORTS.

COTTON.—For a day or two after the telegrams announcing the probability of a war between France and Prussia were received, the market was extremely weak, and prices gave way about Rs. 20 per candy. But the advices received on the 16th instant to the effect that France was willing to refer the Luxemburg question to the neutral Powers removed the apprehension of immediate hostilities, and the market again became animated, yesterday no less than 8,000 candies having been purchased. About 6,000 candies of ready cotton, and about 20,000 candies for future delivery have been purchased since the 13th instant, the date of our last report. Below we append our quotations:—

BOMBAY.

TO-DAY being Good Friday we give our establishment a holiday in accordance with our usual custom. The Gazette, therefore, will not published to-morrow.

THE High Court, Original Jurisdiction Side, will not sit again until Monday next on account of the Easter holidays.

MRS. CHAPMAN and three children arrived on Wednesday night per B. and B.S.S. Co's S.S. Yamuna, Captain Morrison, from Aden and Suez.

MAJOR E. A. BACON, Brigade Major, Bombay, having reported his arrival from Matheran on the 18th instant, resumed his command from Major Hassard as Major of Brigade, Bombay.

WE have been requested to state that the B. and B. S. S. Ganga will leave at 3 o'clock to morrow afternoon, and that a steam tug for the accommodation of passengers will leave the Apollo Bunder at 2 o'clock.

THE English papers inform us that the ship Utopia, Captain Dicks, from Liverpool for Bombay, has foundered at sea. The crew were all saved and landed at Crookhaven.

THE Criminal Sessions will be resumed on Monday morning, when the gentlemen summoned on the common jury will be required to be in attendance. The Special Jury will not be wanted till Tuesday morning.

THE following vessels have been spoken:—Daphne from London to Bombay, February 8th 4-15 N., 25-4 W., with mainyard gone. Flower of the Forest, Kurrachee for Liverpool, February 27th, 27-54 N., 35-1 W.

THE P. and O. Co's steamer Baroda, Captain Haselwood, which arrival on Thursday night last from Aden and Suez, reports that on her passage on March 9th she spoke with the Company's steamer Madras. Asked to be reported.

A MEETING of the Bombay shareholders of the Commercial Bank Corporation of India and the East was held yesterday afternoon at the Bank's offices, in Rampart Row. The Hon'ble Mungaldass Nathoobhoy was called to the chair. A report submitted by the committee appointed last year to watch over the interests of the local shareholders was adopted, and the committee were requested to continue in office and to convene a meeting of shareholders as soon as they (the committee) were in a position to lay before the shareholders a proposal for the resuscitation of the Bank in London for that purpose, it being the opinion of the meeting that a resuscitation if practicable is most desirable.

WE were able to record from the last mortuary return that there had been a reduction in the death rate of ten as against the previous week. That advantage has been lost during the past week, the increase being 19. The number of deaths was 351 against 341 for the previous week, and 470 for the corresponding week in the preceding year.

A MEETING of the creditors of Mr. Rustomjee Jamsetjee Jejeebhoy was held on the 17th instant at the office of Messrs. Remington & Co. Mr. G. M. Stewart presided. A report by the arbitrators appointed to conduct the liquidation in specie, was submitted. It was explained that circumstances had arisen which made it impossible to carry out satisfactorily the terms of the deed under which they acted, and that the altered position of affairs rendered it no longer applicable. A letter from Mr. R. J. Jejeebhoy, addressed to the arbitrators, was then read. In this letter he held out some hope of being able, with the assistance of his friends, to make an offer of a compromise of five annas in the rupee, which represented the present prospects of the estate, taking the assets at the reduced prices now ruling. After some discussion, the following resolution was carried:—

Proposed by Mr. A. J. Macdonald, seconded by Mr. J. Beattie "That Mr. Rustomjee be requested to call a meeting of his creditors for the eighth day of May next, with the object of placing his estate under Act XXVIII of 1865 in case he should, in the meantime be unable to mature, to the satisfaction of his arbitrators, the proposal for liquidation contained in his letter of this date now read."

It was also resolved that the report of the arbitrators should be printed, and a Guzerathee translation of it prepared for the information of creditors who do not understand English.

A FIRE AFLOAT.—Between the hours of one and two o'clock on Wednesday morning the cotia Luckmeepersad of 95 tons, belonging to and from Porebunder, commanded by tindal Narroo, with a cargo of 195 bales loose cotton, and Porebunder stones, laying at anchor in the harbour of Bombay off the Flagstaff was discovered by the Customs Preventive officers to be on fire. Through their exertions the vessel and greater part of the cargo was saved, as the native crew had apparently resigned the vessel to its fate. Not the least attempt was made by them to check it as they were mere helpless spectators. The Proventive officers secured the assistance of a few of the crews of adjoining vessels and by their united exertions, they succeeded in throwing overboard at very great personal risk—the burning cotton. The fire appears to have originated from the cooking place, as cotton bales were stowed all round it, as well as over and above it, and there is not the least doubt but that the hooka was the innocent cause of the accident, by the fire which was intended for it having been allowed to fall into the cotton unnoticed. The damage done is, however, very trifling, as only some twenty-five or thirty bales were lost. Besides, the mast and yards which were also burnt. The owners or those interested will surely appreciate the services of those through whose exertions the vessel and bulk of the cargo were saved.

A SUIT was yesterday decided in the first division Court before Sir Joseph Arnould, in which the liquidators of the Bhattia Financial Association sought to recover from Hajee Moosa Joosub the sum of Rs. 45,650, by reason of the breach by defendant of an agreement made between them on the 4th of February 1865. In this agreement the defendant contracted to purchase of the plaintiffs one share in the Bombay Reclamation Company at a premium of Rs. 45,650 and paid Rs. 100 as earnest money thereon. It was also stipulated that defendant was to pay the above sum to the plaintiffs on the 1st July 1865 and to take delivery of the share from them. The defendant, however, did not accept the share at the time agreed upon, although it was tendered to him and the money demanded. Mr. Dunbar, with Mr. Marriott, instructed by Messrs. Kelly and Co., appeared for the plaintiffs; Mr. McCulloch and Mr. Pigot, under the instructions of Mr. Pestonjee Dinshaw, conducted the defence. Evidence was gone into at considerable length in support of the plaintiffs' case. For the defence Mr. Pigot contended that there was no proof that the share was in the possession of the plaintiffs at the time when the agreement was made. His Lordship on this point held that there was sufficient evidence to satisfy him that the plaintiffs were in possession of the share at the time in question. Mr. Pigot next addressed himself to the issue, whether the contract was a "sutta" contract or not, and submitted that it was a wagering contract. The defendant was examined as to the nature of the agreement in question. He said that it was arranged by the broker that only the difference of price should be paid by either party at the fixed time and that he understood that he was not to receive a share. He also admitted that in July he signed a paper consenting to pay such sum as the directors of the Company might fix. Eventually the Court gave the plaintiff a decree against the defendant with costs.

J. A. BALLARD,
Head Commissioner of Paper Currency.
Calcutta Dept. of Issue of Paper Currency, 4th April 1867.
Published by order of the Governor General in Council.
E. H. LUSHINGTON,
Secy. to the Government of India.

THE Bombay Government Gazette contains the following announcement:—"The Governor in Council is pleased, in pursuance of Act I. of 1859, Section C. to CIII. to appoint R. B. Barton, Esq., Acting Chief Magistrate of Police, and Captain Robert Curling, P. & O. Service, to conduct an investigation into the circumstances connected with a collision which took place on the 9th March last between the steamer Sir John Lawrence, under weigh, and the Gunja Katan Pursad, at anchor, about three miles off the coast, near Alibaugh. The investigation will be held at the Fort Police Office on Tuesday, the 23rd instant, at 2 P.M.

UNITED VICTORIA AND COLABA RECLAMATION AND PIER COMPANY.

AN extraordinary general meeting of the shareholders of the United Victoria and Colaba Reclamation and Pier Company was held yesterday afternoon, in the office of the Company in Elphinstone Circle, for the purpose of confirming the resolutions passed at the meeting on the 10th instant, for winding up the old Company and constructing a new one.

Mr. G. M. Stewart occupied the chair.

The following resolutions were then submitted in conformation and carried unanimously.

The Chairman proposed and Mr. J. A. Forbes sedonded the confirmation of the first resolution. "Whereas it is proposed to wind up voluntarily the United Victoria and Colaba Reclamation and Pier Company (Limited) under the provisions of the Indian Companies Act 1866 and to transfer or sell its business and property to the Colaba Company (Limited.) It is resolved that the Liquidator or Liquidators who shall or may be hereafter appointed to wind up the United Victoria and Colaba Reclamation and Pier Company (Limited) shall have authority to transfer or sell to the said Colaba Company (Limited) the whole of any portion of the property and business or the United Victoria and Colaba Reclamation and Pier Company (Limited) in consideration of receiving in compensation or part compensation for such transfer or sale such number of shares in the said Colaba Company (Limited) as the said Liquidator or Liquidators shall think proper for the purpose of distributing the same among the members of the said United Victoria and Colaba Reclamation and Pier Company (Limited) rateably in proportion to the shares held by them in such last mentioned Company."

The confirmation of the said resolution was proposed by Mr. Sorabjee Nowrojee Wadia and seconded by Mr. Merwanjee Framjee Patell:—That the United Victoria and Colaba Reclamation and Pier Company (Limited) be wound up voluntarily under the provisions of the Indian Companies act 1866.

The confirmation of the next resolution was moved by Mr. P. Adams and seconded by Mr. F. A. Spencer.—"That the liquidator or liquidators of the United Victoria and Colaba Reclamation and Pier Company (Limited), when appointed shall be authorized to purchase the interest of any member dissenting under Section 175 of the Indian Companies Act 1866, either out of the cash in the hands of the Company or out of monies to be raised by such liquidator or liquidators by mortgaging or selling any portions of the property of the Company."

The chairman then explained that another meeting would have to be called for the appointment of liquidators, as their legal advisers informed them that it could not be done at the present meeting.

The following resolution was then proposed by Mr. A. H. Wildy, seconded by Mr. Sorabjee Sapoorjee and carried unanimously That:—"past and future remuneration to directors be three gold mohors to the chairman and two gold mohors to directors for every directors meeting at which they may attend."

A native shareholder enquired of the Chairman about the company's claim on the Bombay Joint Stock Corporation, as to what had been recovered since the last meeting.

The Chairman referred the gentleman to the printed report of the directors for the year ending 31st January (which was circulated in the room) wherein it was stated that during the past year Rs. 4,01,000 had been recovered from the Bombay Joint Stock Corporation leaving a sum of Rs. 9,41,001-7-5 still due. In October last a proposal was made to settle this account by compromise, which was referred to a committee of shareholders to act with the directors, the conclusion they came to was, that no equitable compromise could then be arranged. The alternative course was therefore adopted and at the instance of the principal creditors as well as of the liquidators the winding up of the corporation was placed under the supervision of the High Court. Therefore no steps would now be taken with a view to enforcing the claims of the company, but the list of contributories liable to pay calls would shortly be made and then the value of the claim may be more readily determined.

The usual vote of thanks to the Chairman terminated the proceedings.

THE MUNICIPAL ACT AMENDMENT BILL.

THE following Report of the Select Committee of the Council of His Excellency the Governor of Bombay for Making Laws and Regulations on the "Bill to amend Act No. 11. of 1865 (Bombay), together with the Bill as amended by the Select Committee, is published for general information:—

Your Committee have considered the Bill to amend the Bombay Municipal Act No. II. of 1865

They have been in communication with the Municipal Commissioner, and have had under consideration certain Resolutions passed by the Bench of Justices at a special General Meeting held to discuss the Bill. The alterations affirmed by these Resolutions have for the most part been adopted.

3. Your Committee have also considered the proposal of the Municipal Commissioner to prohibit by law the practice of carrying dead bodies through the streets with their faces exposed. Your Committee are of opinion that this practice is not a matter for legislation, and that it would more properly be dealt with by the Municipal Commissioner and the Officers of the Municipality and by the influence of the educated Native Gentlemen of the Community.

4. Your Committee recommend that the Bill be passed in its amended form.

5. This Report and the amended Bill should be translated into Marathi and Goozerathi.

NOTICES.

HOPE HALL FAMILY HOTEL, MAZAGON.—The Proprietors of this HOTEL, the first established and best known in Bombay, have the honour to inform their Patrons and the Public, that it has recently been thoroughly repaired and greatly improved and enlarged; no expense having been spared to render it a suitable and comfortable residence for European Ladies and Gentlemen and Families.

The HOPE HALL HOTEL stands in the midst of an extensive and beautiful Compound, nicely cultivated and intersected by broad and well kept Walks, an advantage which no Hotel in Bombay possesses to the same extent. The Proprietors beg especially to call the attention of the Public to the advantages offered by the detached Bungalows in the Compound; the number of these has lately been increased, as they are found peculiarly adapted to the comfort and privacy of Families. Cleanliness in every respect is most carefully attended to.

The Proprietors can confidently say there is no Hotel in Bombay where the Table is better or more abundantly supplied or where the Wines provided are of better quality.

There is a Table d'Hote at 7 P. M.; but Dinners can be served in Private Rooms at any hour if required.

Horses and Carriages can be had on the premises.

The Hotel is within convenient distance of the Railway Stations and Bunders.

SORABJEE FRAMJEE & Co., Proprietors.

PRESCRIBED by the Faculty for Purifying the Blood, Debility, Liver Complaints, and freeing the system from the effects of Mercury. Exclusively used in India and the Colonies as a prevention to the Tropical Diseases.

"Superior preparation that may always be relied on."—Sir Astley Cooper.

"We are in every respect satisfied with it."—Lancet.

"We recommend your Sarsaparilla as the best."—Medical Review.

Sold in ½, ¼, and Pint Bottles.

Caution.—Many spurious, worthless, and injurious preparations are offered to the public; see that both Bottle and Label have the Name and Address—

THOMAS WILKINSON (LATE BRIDGE & Co.)
270, REGENT STREET, LONDON.

QUINTESSENCE OF JAMAICA GINGER AND CAMOMILE.

WILKINSON'S preparation of Ginger and Camomile has long been deservedly known as an excellent domestic medicine. It is a most efficient Stomachic Tonic, and the best remedy for Flatulency and disorders arising from Impaired digestion.

It is not affected by Climate.

No European in India or Tropical Countries should be without it.

Sold in ½, ¼, and ¼ pint bottles.

AROMATIC TINCTURE OF QUINOIDINE.

For the prevention of Fever, Ague, and effects of Malaria.

An unfailing remedy.

It may be mentioned that those who during the campaign in the Crimea daily took a small quantity, passed entirely unharmed through the raking fire of Fever and Dysentery that thinned the ranks around them.

Sold in ½ and pint bottles.

GENERAL BUSINESS.

NEW BOOKS imported for sale and to order by all opportunities and on the most favourable terms that circumstances connected with Bookselling in India will allow.

NEWSPAPERS AND PERIODICALS.—Orders are not accepted for these publications on any but Cash terms. A subscription list has been compiled in accordance with this principle, and will be forwarded on application.

NEWSPAPERS are sent direct.

PERIODICALS are enclosed in our fortnightly cases.

The following popular publications—Cornhill, All the Year Round, Chambers's Journal, Leisure Hour, Sunday at Home, and Good Words—are published in time for despatch by Southampton steamer of the 26th of each month; the great bulk of Periodicals, including Blackwood, Fraser, Punch, Once a Week, &c., &c., cannot be forwarded earlier than the succeeding steamers of the 12th of the following month. Subscribers are particularly requested to note this, as complaints are constantly being received, that all Periodicals subscribed for are not received at one and the same time.

PRINTING, PUBLISHING, & BINDING undertaken either in England or India under careful supervision. The former can be executed in Bombay with great neatness, and includes book-printing, lithography, card-printing, &c. &c.

PICTURE FRAMING executed under particular instructions and careful superintendence.

SCIENTIFIC INSTRUMENTS—Troughton and Simms, and Elliott's Instruments, Engineering and Mathematical, to meet the requirements of practical men; and also less expensive descriptions for Students and Amateurs.

THEODOLITES, DUMPY LEVELS, PRISMATIC COMPASSES, POCKET SEXTANTS, SURVEYING CHAINS, MEASURING TAPES, and all descriptions of surveying Instruments are, at all times, available, together with the requisite adjuncts, Tracing Cloth, Drawing Papers, mounted or plain, Drawing Materials, &c. &c.

AGENCY.—As General Agents, Messrs. THACKER, VINING & Co. undertake Indents for all descriptions of Merchandize and Goods. Catalogues of Machinery, The Complete Illustrated Catalogues of Messrs. Defries and Co.'s extensive Glassware Manufactory, and numerous others, are available for inspection and estimate.

NOTE.—Messrs. THACKER, VINING & Co. have always great satisfaction in encouraging Cash transactions by liberal discounts, and arrangements in connection with their stock in hand or English Indents.

DYSENTERY, CHOLERA, FEVER, AGUE, ETC.,

CHLORODYNE.

DR. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE is a certain cure in Cholera, Dysentery, Diarrhœa, Colics, &c.

Dr. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE.—Extract from the General Board of Health, London, as to its efficacy in Cholera.—"So strongly are we convinced of the immense value of this remedy, that we cannot too forcibly urge the necessity of adopting it in all cases." From A. Montgomery, Esq., late Inspector of Hospitals, Bengal.—"Chlorodyne is a most valuable remedy in Neuralgia, Asthma, and Dysentery. To it I fairly owe my restoration to health after eighteen months' severe suffering, and when all other remedies had failed."

Dr. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE.—CAUTION.—None genuine without the words "Dr. J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne" on the Government Stamp. Overwhelming medical testimony accompanies each bottle. Sole Manufacturer, J. T. Davenport, 33, Great Russell-street, Bloomsbury, London. The immense demand enables the proprietors to reduce the price; it is now sold in bottles, 1s. 1½d., 2s. 9d., 4s. 6d., and 11s.

Dr. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE.—Vice-Chancellor Sir W. Page Wood stated publicly in Court that Dr. J. Collis Browne was undoubtedly the Inventor of Chlorodyne; that the whole story of the defendant Freeman was deliberately untrue, and he regretted to say it had been sworn to.—See The Times, July 13, 1864.

Dr. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE.—The Right Hon. Earl Russell communicated to the College of Physicians and J. T. Davenport, that he had received information to the effect that the only remedy of any service in Cholera was Chlorodyne.—See Lancet, Dec. 31, 1864

Dr. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE.—Extract from Medical Times, Jan. 12, 1866—"Is prescribed by scores of orthodox medical practitioners. Of course it would not be thus singularly popular did it not 'supply a want and fill a place.'"

Dr. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE is the best and most certain remedy in Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Consumption, Neuralgia, Rheumatism, &c.

Agents—CALCUTTA: SCOTT, THOMPSON & Co.; W. J. PETTAR, 74, Clive-street; NEW MEDICAL HALL COMPANY. BOMBAY: TREACHER & Co. HONGKONG: MR. A. S. WATSON.

J. T. DAVENPORT, 33, Great Russell-street, London, W.C.

Be not deceived by any piracy, imitation, or substitution of the word CHLORODYNE, a name exclusively adopted by Dr. BROWNE for his wonderful remedy, the great success of which has given rise to various subterfuges.

AERATED WATERS.—MESSRS. ROGERS & Co. have, as is well known, for many years devoted their closest attention as Chemists to the manufacture of the above, necessaries of life. Their long and intimate experience of the systems of Charcoal filtration has enabled them to construct Filters vastly superior to the much vaunted and advertised Charcoal Block, a medium which no Chemist can use without soon discovering its defects.

The use of Steam Power has enabled them to dispense with native or animal labour in aerating the water, and thus to produce a beverage of unsurpassable excellence: and as, for nearly quarter of a century they have been Agents for the most celebrated Soda Water Machinists in England—Messrs. Hayward, Tyler & Co.—they have been able to test experimentally every improvement in Soda Water in a chimery during that long period.

The following are the principal WATERS manufactured by Rogers & Co.:—

SODA WATER, free from excess of Alkali, and therefore from that soapy taste characterising bazaar and other Waters.
LEMONADE.
TONIC WATER, a delicious assuagant which, as manufactured by Rogers & Co., cannot be imitated.
GINGERADE.
POTASH WATER.
LITHIA WATER.
SELTZER WATER.
VICHY WATER (Alterative and Alkaline.)
OREZZA WATER (chalybeate).

From the complete collection of Analyses in their possession Messrs. R. & Co. can prepare numerous other Mineral Waters with great accuracy.

SYRUPS.

TONIC REFRESHER (name registered). An excellent addition to Soda Water, in Faintness or Dejection, when recourse would otherwise be had to Alcoholic stimulants.
LEMON.
TONIC LEMON.
GINGER.
FRUIT of various kinds.

The printed instructions for the unpacking and preservation of Soda Water which Messrs. R. & Co. issued to their mofussil constituents twelve months ago, and which, they perceive, have been adopted by a neighbouring house, ran as follows:—It is important that the Soda Water when received should be at once unpacked, and the bottles laid on their sides (the liquid covering the corks) with dry straw between. If this precaution be not attended to, it is very probable that the contents will afterwards be found ullaged and bad.

ROGERS & Co., Pharmaceutical Chemists,
Bombay and Poona.

CARBOLIC ACID.—MACDOUGALL'S preparation of this Acid have been universally adopted by Government and Municipal authorities in this country as the best disinfectants extant.

The experiments of Mr. Crookes F. R. S. in connection with the Cattle Plague have proved their excellence beyond a doubt. No one in town or country ought to be without the Powder who has a regard for his health or those of household.

In Stables and Dog Kennels the powder is as essential to cleanliness as soap is in a bath-room.

The Ointment is infallible in the removal of Mange.

For Cesspools or Drains the Liquid is the best preparation. Powder Rs. 12 per cwt., 12 as. per bottle. Ointment per pots, 8 as., Rs. 1, and Rs. 2. Liquid per bottle 12 as., and Rs. 1-4 or Rs. 6 and Rs. 12 per dozen.
